Beginning Friday, May 1 through Friday, May 15, the limited edition Kathy Davis Mother's Day bouquet, a vibrant grouping of Flowerbud.com's freshest gathering of field flowers that includes radiant sunflowers, fragrant stock flower, Wax-flower, Bupleurum and Huckleberry Twigs, will be available with a special Kathy Davis American Greetings Corporation (NYSE: AM) sunflower greeting card at www.flowerbud.com, where a $4.00 donation from each sale will benefit the Sunshine Foundation, an organization that works diligently to make the dreams of seriously ill, physically challenged and abused children across the U.S. come true.

"Today's consumers want to participate with brands that go beyond themselves -- brands that give back to support important causes, help communities they serve, protect the environment," explain Kathy Davis. "Our new Mother's Day partnership with Flowerbud.com gives children the ability not only to recognize mom, aunts and grandmothers this year, but to use their dollars to give a gift that gives twice -- one that scatters even more joy to other children in need of support and a smile."

According to the National Retail Federation's 2009 Mother's Day Consumer Intentions and Actions Survey, the majority of Americans (66.8%) will choose to purchase flowers to recognize the special women in their lives.
