

PEOPLE: ON THE MOVE

Schulz

MISCELLANEOUS

Kathy Davis Studios Inc.

of Ambler appointed Melissa Schulz vice president. Previously she served as an artist agent and creative consultant for Sequel Designs & Licensing.

Sunoco Logistics Partners of Philadelphia appointed Michael J. Hennigan vice president of business development. Previously, he served at Sunoco Inc., as senior vice president of business improvement.

The University of Pennsylvania Museum of Archaeology and Anthropology appointed Dr. Loa P. Traxler as the Andrew W. Mellon associate deputy director for a three-year term beginning June 1. She currently serves as a research specialist in the museum's American section.

Culinary Concepts of Philadelphia hired Kelly-Ayn Mckay as director of sales and marketing. She previously served as a catering sales director for Restaurant Associates and the Wood Co.

The University of the Arts of Philadelphia named Charles Gilbert director of the Ira Brind School of Theater Arts. Gilbert had served as interim director for the past year. He joined University of the Arts as head of the musical theater program in 1990. Additionally, there were several new appointments to the board: Brian Efron, president of Healthcare Administrative Partners in Media; William R. Gast, president and CEO of Mangos Inc. in Malvern, and Sueyun Pyo Locks, owner of Locks Gallery in Philadelphia.

